The Top 10 Mistakes Made On The Elder Care Continuum presented by R. Dennison Keller, Jr., Esq.

We have the best intentions as we start planning for ourselves and/or our aging parents, but there are so many pieces to consider when actually executing a plan that protects your assets as well as your quality of life. Many mistakes are made along the way. We will focus on the most common missteps so you can stay on a guided path - to protect yourself and those you love for what may lie ahead.
